THE FOURTH WALL

Monday 4th December 2006

Devised by Richard BF and Louise McManus

Directed by Richard BF

Improvised by Cale Bain, Richard BF, Jonathan Briden, Carolyn Eccles, Steve Johnston, Louise McManus and Marko Mustac

“The World is a Stage. Literally!”

A long form improvised comedy of interwoven stories and scene work, both on stage and live on screen.

Comedy improvisers perform on stage and on video outside the theatre, which is then reincorporated into the show as it progresses, utilising audience suggestions, and creating a unique blend of actor, audience and “outside the theatre” influences.

After a two highly successful first time in Australia performances, The Fourth Wall is returning for a final encore show, projected onto the biggest screen in Balmain.

Think Theatresports® or Thank God You're Here, but without the time limits, and outside the bounds of the stage and theatre itself. It's improv in the real world, without the safety net of a black box, and without the fourth wall.

Marko Mustac, Steve Johnston and Jonathan Briden are previous winners of the Theatresports® Cranston Cup. Richard BF is director of Sydney's longest running weekly improv show, Scared Scriptless, and devised the weekly long form improv show The Late Show, diirected by Louise McManus. Cale Bain is an internationally known improviser and long form improv instructor. The cast has over 90 years of combined improv experience.

Production crew: Videographer Rob Pieiga. Stage/Tape Technician Srey Yim. Stage Manager/Runner Linda Calgaro. Producer Richard BF.
